AMERICAN EXPORTS GREATER THAN EVER BEFORE FOR JULY

FARMS AND FACTORIES OF THE
UNITED STATES SUPPLY FOR EIGN MARKETS WITH PRO-
DUCTS AMOUNTING TO $267,
978,990—GOOD TRADE BALANCE.

IMPORTS SHOW BIG DECREASE

Change in Flow of Gold from East to West Since Beginning of War Is Shown in Department Figures—The Movement of Gold to United States
Is Increased.

Washington, Aug. 28.—Exports of the products of American farms and factories in July, valued at $267,978,990, were the greatest ever recorded in that month, the department of commerce announced tonight. The nearest approach to the new record was made in July, 1913, when American shipments abroad reached $160,990,778.

The trade balance for the month—excess of exports over imports—was $124,879,370, compared with a balance of $211,928,008 in July, 1913. One year ago in July exports were less than imports by more than $5,000,000.

Exports for the first seven months of the year—valued at $1,969,787,495, gave a balance of trade in favor of the United States only a little short of a billion dollars. The total was $960,878,054, compared with $602,388,759 in the first seven months of 1914.

July imports were valued at $145,699,620, compared with $159,677,291 last year; for the seven months, $1,608,909,441 against $1,140,593,373 one year ago.

The change in the flow of gold from east to west since the beginning of the war was emphasized by the department's figures, showing gold exports in July of $21,191,735, compared with $23,659,424 in July last year. Imports last month $17,262,938, compared with $8,391,715 in July, 1914. For the seven months there was a net inward gold movement of $152,413,112, contrasted with an outward movement of $83,508,822 in the same period last year.

Frank A. Munsey Sells Newspaper

Baltimore, Aug. 28.—Announcement was made today of the sale by Frank A. Munsey of the Baltimore News and the Munsey building to Stuart Olivier, general manager of Mr. Munsey's Baltimore interests. It is understood that the transaction involved about $4,000,000. Mr. Olivier announced he "stands alone in purchasing these properties."

The news today published a personal statement from Mr. Munsey in which he said he bought the Baltimore News with the view of making it one of a chain of newspapers to be owned and operated by one central organization. Theoretically, he said, the idea looked to be sound.

"But the newspaper chain in the outworking isn't the same," he said. "It looked to be in analysis," Mr. Munsey continued. "It has failed." Ownership management suggests a language that the community understands, whereas, with the salaried management there is always something akin to the foreign accent that cannot be disguised."

SUMMARY OF WAR

The Arabic incident and Germany's submarine policy are the subjects of consideration at a conference now being held at the eastern headquarters of the German army between Emperor William and Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the German imperial chancellor, Admiral von Tirpitz, German minister of marine, and Admiral von Mueller, the emperor's personal adviser on naval affairs.

No news concerning the conference has reached Berlin. However, Admiral von Mueller is said to have thrown his influence with that of the imperial chancellor and Foreign Minister von Jagow in an endeavor to reach an amicable understanding with the United States. For this reason the opinion is expressed in the German capital that there is no cause to change the optimistic view of the situation created by Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg's pronouncement of last Wednesday.

While Petrograd officially expresses the opinion that the Russians are on the eve of digging themselves in and making a stand on a new front, there are indications as yet of a halt in their retreat movement or of any let up in the force of the Teutonic onrush.

To the contrary to Austro-German offensive has broken out again in sector where there has been comparative inactivity for the better part of two months past—in East Galicia, where the lines along the Dniester, the Zlota Lipa and the Galia have changed only little since early July when the Teutonic armies swung north and began the closing in movement which resulted in the Russian withdrawal from the Warsaw salient.

The early lines Berlin claims, have now been broken along the Zlota Lipa and the Russians are in full retreat under energetic Austro-German pur-

GERMAN AMBASSADOR TO GO TO NEW YORK TO AWAIT IN-

WHICH BELIEVES WILL BRING

HOPE TO REOPEN DISCUSSIONS

Washington Now Awaits Word from Germany, Which Is Held Up Pending Official Report of Sinking of Ship—This May Cause Delay of a Fortnight, According to Berlin.

Washington, Aug. 28.—Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, will leave Washington tomorrow for New York to await instructions from his government which he confidently expects will lead to negotiations that will bring a speedy and wholly satisfactory conclusion to the entire controversy between the United States and Germany over the question of submarine warfare.

Unless the situation in Berlin wholly changes before the dispatches are sent, the ambassador believes he will be authorized to reopen informal discussions with Secretary Lansing to the end that a note may be framed by the German government entirely satisfactory to the United States.

So far as the state department is concerned, formal presentation of the Arabic case to Germany awaited receipt from Ambassador Gerard at Berlin of the German admiralty reports on the destruction of the ship. Dispatches from Berlin tonight said the report might be delayed a fortnight. The last of the German submarines operating south of Ireland will not return to port before that time. Until the admiralty statement is received, however, the Arabic case disposed of, it is unlikely that a discussion of the broader question of submarine warfare will be reopened. In German circles here it is firmly believed that the Berlin government is anxious to bring to a quick and friendly termination the whole discussion over the submarine campaign.

The visit of Count von Bernstorff to Washington, acting on instructions from Berlin, is viewed as conclusive proof that the liberal element of the German government has triumphed and that every effort will be made to meet the views of President Wilson as expressed to the ambassador in an interview soon after the Lusitania was destroyed. The German foreign office is believed to be ready to encourage an informal exchange of views between Count von Bernstorff and Secretary Lansing in order that the drafting of a full reply to the last American note on the Lusitania, satisfactory to the Washington government may be hastened.

The effect of the change will be to increase materially the range of the navy's 14-inch guns and also to make gun fire more accurate in rough weather. The guns now have sufficient range to reach anything within the limit of vision on the sea and the added elevation will enable them to hurl shells at objects far beyond the horizon or over hills of considerable elevation from land fortifications. Officials have guarded closely particulars of battles off Helgoland and the Falklands islands in reaching their decisions in this regard. Both were fought at almost the extreme range of the big guns engaged.

A new problem has been presented as a result of high angle fire and naval experts are studying methods of increasing deck armor against the plunging fire of shells hurled from a great distance. They are faced, however, by the necessity of either reducing the weight of armor on the sides or increasing the size of the ship to carry the additional weight. Battleships of the California class will have a beam of nearly 100 feet, the maximum of the ship capacity.

Battleship Batteries to Be Given a 30 Degree Elevation

Washington, Aug. 28.—Main batteries of American battleships hereafter will be given an elevation of thirty degrees, practically doubling the present angle of fire, according to a decision reached by navy department experts it is said, after a close study of all available information on naval engagements of the European war. Wherever possible, ships now under construction and those already in commission, it is understood, will be similarly fitted.

RETRIEVING SPENT TORPEDOES PERILOUS SIDE LINE OF WAR

CAPTURING A SPENT TORPEDO

Risking their lives not in battle, but in an interesting "side line" of the business of war, British sailors almost literally take their lives in their hands when they retrieve the spent German torpedoes which fail to find their marks. Not all of the kaiser's submarine missiles reach their targets, although the general aim is deadly. When the propulsive force is spent the torpedo floats on the surface, but explosive war head, sensitive to shock, remains. The illustration shows how such a torpedo is handled.

Bodies Pershing's Children to Be Sent Cheyenne, Wyoming

San Francisco, Aug. 28.—Friends of Brigadier General John J. Pershing, whose wife and three children perished in a fire at the Presidio military reservation here yesterday, completed arrangements today to have the bodies sent to Cheyenne, Wyo., tomorrow for burial. Cheyenne is the home of Mrs. Pershing's father, United States Senator Francis E. Warren.

General Pershing will meet the funeral party across the bay in Oakland, as his friends do not want him to view the blackened ruins of his former home.

Mrs. Pershing was a popular matron at the post and the tragedy has plunged the reservation in mourning. General Pershing will arrive tomorrow morning from El Paso.

Answer of Chief Will Be Sent to Washington as Soon as Business of Transferring Capital to Mexico City is Completed—Says He Controls Most of Country.

Washington, Aug. 28.—The next step in the effort to bring peace to Mexico will be considered by the Pan-American conference probably next week. A majority of the military and political leaders of Mexico having replied to the appeal of the conference for a peace agreement it was announced officially today that the conference would be reassembled soon, although a definite date for the meeting has not been set.

Copies of the replies already received have been furnished to the six South and Central American departments who, with Secretary Lansing, composed the conference. General Carranza's reply is expected early next week, and it is understood the call for the meeting will be issued as soon as that is in Mr. Lansing's hands.

Carranza officials here said the reply probably would be sent as soon as General Carranza reached Mexico City to re-establish his capital there. He has chosen to delay his answer until then because, he said, he wishes to impress the conference with the fact that the government he claims is in control of the greater part of Mexico.

Mexican leaders favoring the Pan-American plan are located principally in the north and west of Mexico, those opposing it in the east and central part of Mexico. General Zapata of Morelos, south of Mexico City, is expected to favor the plan, although his reply has not yet been received.

Indeed, another conference is held, Carranza's adherents are hopeful that General Obregon will have captured Torreon toward which he is said to be advancing. Villa is said to be massing his forces at Torreon to meet this last resort.

Coast Artillery on Duty at Panama Is to Be Increased

Washington, Aug. 28.—The coast artillery on duty at the Panama canal will be increased to full companies or about 2,000 men it was learned today, the former policy of maintaining the big gun crews at about half strength in peace time, having been abandoned.

Fortifications of the canal zone are rapidly nearing completion. Originally it was planned to man them with fourteen companies under the theory that it was improbable that the Germans at both ends of the waterway would be attacked simultaneously and the canal and railroad made rapid shipment of forces to the danger zone possible.

Under the general adjustment plan of the army full garrisons for the defenses have been determined and it is considered certain that a big increase in the coast artillery corps will be asked when congress reassembles as the doubling of the canal force will materially reduce the strength in territorial United States.

Plans are now before the army for fortifications board for the equipment of new fortifications of the first class with 15-inch rifles having a range of about twenty miles. It is proposed to substitute for the 10-inch guns.

On the western front the activity of the airmen continues. Six German aviators attempted an attack on Paris, but were driven off in a box car, one machine, the allies, apparently the British, threw bombs on Oostend, Middlekerke and Bruges. On the dunes at Middlekerke the Germans have set up their most formidable batteries for use against attacks from the sea, while at Bruges the objective of the airmen would be the canal and docks which are used extensively by the Germans for transport purposes.

This was doubtless a further phase of the attack on the Belgian coast initiated by British warships last Tuesday.

The Balkan situation still creates a great deal of interest and confidence is expressed that with Serbia showing a compromising attitude it will be settled to the advantage of the entente allies. Serbia's reply to the entente, however, has not yet been delivered.

And Bulgaria, Greece and Rumania are holding their hands until the contents are known.

TO MOVE DIVISION FROM TEXAS CITY

WAR DEPARTMENT ALSO DE-
CIDES NOT TO CONDUCT
CAMP.

General Franklin J. Bell Gives Out Information Contained in Order
From Secretary of War.

Houston, Aug. 28.—Headquarters of the second division United States army will not be re-established at Texas City, and the war department will not conduct an army camp on a large scale at Galveston, in view of the recent storm.

Official information to this effect was given out this afternoon by Major General J. Franklin Bell at Texas City, in the form of an order from the secretary of war, which read:

Washington, D. C., Aug. 27.—Major General J. Franklin Bell, commanding general, second division, Texas City, Texas: Your report dated August 25, 1915, just received. Expediencies of the service will control distribution of troops. You and all those under you must realize the sincere sympathy that I feel for the cuntry and personal losses incident to the flood and also the pride and gratification at the splendid conduct of the entire command. The newspapers here all reflect fine work done by the division. I have no objection to your letting it be known that the camp will not be re-established at Texas City and that it will not be attempted to establish a large camp at Galveston.

(Signed) LINDLEY M. GARRISON, Secretary of War.

Houston and Corpus Christi have asked for the division headquarters.

WALSH BLAMES ALL ON LOW WAGES PAID

LABOR MEMBERS OF FEDERAL INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS COM-MISSION TO REPORT.

WORKERS PARTLY RESPONSIBLE

Report Says Labor Is Blind to Collective Strength and Deaf to Cries of Followers.

Kansas City, Aug. 28.—Low wages was found to be the basic cause of industrial unrest in the report which Frank P. Walsh, chairman of the federal commission on industrial relations, and the labor members of that body will present to congress as a result of the commission's two-year investigation into the subject. The report, embodying the personal findings of Mr. Walsh and concurred in by Commissioners John B. Lennon, James O. Connell and Austin B. Garretson, was made public here today.

"The workers of the nation, through compulsory and oppressive methods, legal and illegal, are denied the full product of their toil," it was declared in the report, and the resulting industrial dissatisfaction was said to have reached "proportions that already menace the social good will and the peace of the nation."

Responsibility for the conditions under which they live was placed primarily upon the workers themselves, who, "blind to their collective strength and oftentimes deaf to the cries of their followers, have suffered exploitation and the invasion of their most sacred rights without resistance." The rest of the report follows:

"Charged by your honorable body with an investigation to discover the underlying causes of dissatisfaction in the industrial situation, we herewith present the following findings and conclusions, and we urge for them the most earnest consideration, not only by the congress, but by the people of the nation, to the end that evils which threaten to defeat American ideals and to destroy the welfare-being of the nation may be generally recognized and effectively attacked."

"We find the basic cause of industrial dissatisfaction to be low wages, or, stated in another way, the fact that the workers of the nations, through compulsory and oppressive methods, legal and illegal, are denied the full product of their toil."

"We further find that unrest among the workers in industry has grown to proportions that already menace the social good will and the peace of the nation. Citizens numbering millions share under the sense of injustice and oppression born of the conviction that the opportunity is denied them to acquire for themselves and their families that degree of economic well-being necessary for the enjoyment of those material and spiritual satisfactions which alone make life worth living."

Recent Arbitrary Power.

"Bitterness, bred of unfilled need for sufficient food, clothing and shelter for themselves and their wives and children, has been further nourished in the hearts of those millions by resentment against the arbitrary power that enables the employer under our important industrial system to control not only the workman's opportunity to earn his bread, but oftentimes through the exercise of this power, to control his social, political and moral environment. By thwarting the human passion for liberty and the solicitude of the husband and father for his son, modern industry has kindled a spirit in these dissatisfied millions that lies deeper and springs from nobler impulses than physical need and human selfishness."

"Among these millions and their leaders we have encountered a spirit religious in its fervor and in its willingness to sacrifice for a cause held sacred. And we earnestly submit that only in the light of this spirit can the aggressive propaganda of the discontent be understood and judged."

"The extent and depth of industrial unrest can hardly be exaggerated. State and national conventions of labor organizations, numbering many thousands of members, have cheered the names of leaders imprisoned for participation in a campaign of violence conducted as one phase of a conflict with organized employers. Thirty thousand workers in a single strike have followed the leadership of a man who denounced government and called for rebellion against an organized employer. Employers from coast to coast have created and maintained small private armies of armed men and have used these forces to intimidate and suppress their striking employees by deporting, imprisoning, assaulting and killing their leaders. Elaborate spy systems are maintained to discover and forestall the movements of the enemy. The use of state troops in policing strikes has bred a bitter hostility to the militia system among members of labor organizations, and states have been unable to enlist wage earners for this second line of the nation's defense."

"Courts, legislatures and governors have been rightfully accused of serving employers to the defeat of justice, and, while counter-charges come from employers and their agents, with almost negligible exceptions, it is the wage earners who believe, assert, and prove that the very institutions of their country have been perverted by the power of the employer. Prison records for labor leaders have become badges of honor in the eyes of many of their people, and great mass meetings throughout the nation cheer denunciations of courts and court decisions."

"To the support of the militant and aggressive propaganda of organized labor has come, within recent years, a small but rapidly increasing host of ministers of the gospel, college professors, writers, journalists and others of the professional class, distinguished in many instances by exceptional talent which they devote to agitation, with no hope of material reward, and a devotion that can be explained only in the light of the fervid religious spirit which animates this organized industrial unrest."

"We find the unrest here described to be but the latest manifestation of the age-long struggle of the race for freedom of opportunity for every individual to live his life to its highest ends. As the nobles of England wrung their independence from King John, and as the tradesmen of France broke through the ring of privilege enclosing the three estates, so today the millions who serve society in arduous labor on the highways, and aloft on scaffolding, and by the sides of whirling machines, are demanding that they, too, and their children shall enjoy all of the blessings that justify and make beautiful this life."

Changes Augment Unrest.

"The unrest of the wage earners has been augmented by recent changes and developments in industry. Chief of these are the rapid and universal introduction and extension of machinery of production, by which unskilled workers may be substituted for the skilled, and an equally rapid development of means of communication and transportation by which capital has been enabled to organize into great corporations possessing great economic power. This tendency toward huge corporations and large factories has been furthered by the necessity of employing large sums of capital in order to purchase and install expensive machinery the use of which is practicable only when production is conducted on a large scale. Work formerly done at home or in small neighborhood shops, has been transferred to great factories where the individual worker becomes an impersonal element under the control of impersonal corporations without voice in determining the conditions under which he works and largely without interest in the success of the enterprise or the disposal of the product. Women in increasing numbers have followed their work from the home to the factory, and even children have been enlisted."

"Now, more than ever, the profits of great industries under centralized control pour into the coffers of stockholders and directors who never have so much as visited the plants and who perform no service in return. And with vast inherited fortunes, representing zero in social service to the credit of their possessors, automatically treble and multiply in volume, two-thirds of those who toil from 8 to 12 hours a day receive less than enough to support themselves and their families in decency and comfort."

"From the cradle to the grave they dwell in the shadow of a fear that their only resources—their opportunity to toil—shall be taken away from them. Through accident, illness, the caprice of fortune, or the forces of the industry. The life of their babies are snuffed out by bad air in cheap lodgings and the lack of nourishment and care which they cannot buy. Fathers and husbands die or maimed in accidents and their families receive a pittance, or succumb in mid-life and they receive nothing."

"And when these unfortunate seek, by the only means within reach, to better their lot by organizing to help themselves from helplessness to some measure of collective power, with which to win living wages from their employers, they find them often arrayed against them not only the massed power of capital, but every arm of the government that was created to enforce guarantees of equality and justice. We find that many entire communities exist under the arbitrary economic control of corporation officials charged with the management of an industry or group of industries, and we find in such communities political freedom do not exist. Given to the employer power to discharge without cause, power to withhold to thousands the opportunity to earn bread and the liberties of such a community lie in the hollow of the employer's hand. Free speech, free assembly and a free press may be denied, as they have been denied time and again, and the employer's agents may be placed in public office to do his bidding."

"In larger communities where estrangement becomes impossible, the wage earner who is unsupported by a collective organization, may enjoy freedom of expression outside the workshop, but there his freedom ends. And the freedom more apparent than real. For the house he lives in, the food he eats, the clothing he wears, the environment of his wife and children and his own health and safety, are in the hands of the employer, through the arbitrary power which he exercises in fixing his wages and working conditions."

"The social responsibility for these unfortunate conditions may be fixed with reasonable certainty. The responsibility and such blame as attaches thereto cannot be held to rest upon employers, since, in the maintenance of the evils of low wages, long hours and bad factory conditions, and in their attempt to gain control of economic and political advantages which would promote their interests they have merely followed the natural bent of men involved in the struggle of competitive industry. The responsibility for the conditions which have been described above, we declare, rests principally upon the workers, blind to their collective strength and oftentimes deaf to the cries of their followers, have suffered exploitation and the invasion of their most sacred rights without resistance."

"But, however, attach to the great mass of citizens who, not directly involved in the struggle, with capital and labor, have failed to realize their own prosperity, who dependent upon the welfare of all the classes of the community, and that their rights were bound up with the rights of every other individual. But, until the workers themselves realize their responsibility and utilize their full collective power, no action, whether government or altruistic, can work

WEST WORTH SEEING SAYS WACO WOMAN

MRS. STELLA P. WREN WRITES
INTERESTINGLY OF PEOPLE AND THINGS SHE SAW.

OWES ART MORE THAN NATURE

Parks Are Work of Man Rather Than
God and Irrigation Alone Can Redeem the Desert Places.

To the Waco Morning News:
There are many things about the west that are of interest, and needless to say I did not miss an opportunity to see and hear all. I experienced all kinds of climate. I spent a few days in the Imperial Valley, or to be exact, the genuine desert. I was told by my friends that it was very unwise to visit the valley in the summer, where the temperature seldom goes below 110 and often runs up to 130 degrees. I was, however, determined to try, for I wanted to experience the desert and also see my old college chum, Maud Wood, who lives there. My reply to my friends was that I was a native Texan and could stand any amount of heat, but to my surprise I could not stand that climate.

The little town of Holtville, where I visited, is about ten feet below the sea level and is shut in from the ocean by very high mountains. This makes the air very oppressive and breathing is very difficult for a newcomer for the first few weeks. There was never a cloud in the sky and when the sun put in its appearance about 4 o'clock in the morning, it seemed very near the earth indeed. This section of our country is said to have been at one time, the bottom of the ocean. The soil contains a kind of alkali and when it is ground up on the roads, the dust is fine as powder. Up to this time I am informed nothing has been found to absorb it; consequently, the people have to suffer from the dust as well as heat.

Scene of Well Known Story.

The scene of the story "The Winning of Barbara Worth" was laid in this section, and I saw where the author, Harold Wright, lives in a little cottage just peeping out from a clump of trees. In the story Mr. Wright pictures the interesting desert girl and often she is made to speak of the "call of the desert" and wants her friend to learn the language of the desert. This same feeling seems to have gripped all the people who have given up to reclaim the land, and they become so attached to it, that no one ever thinks of leaving. And I have never met a more congenial and happy community at any place I have ever visited. It is the determination to make things go using the little they have, overlooking the difficulties, and the vision they hold of the possibilities of the country that make it such a fascinating land. They have made a small green spot in the desert.

El Centro I made the trip by stage with a party of tourists through twenty-two miles of desert where nothing grows but cactus and greasewood. The hot winds fairly beat on our flesh, and when we gazed at the miles and miles of scorching sands we agreed that the lover we have loved his sweetheart will be expressed his feelings in the words of the poet "Till the sands of the desert grow cold," for that seemed an impossible thing.

The desert ended and we began a long stretch of mountain climbing. These were truly rocky mountains for not a bit of life was to be seen for many miles. When we reached the top at an elevation of five thousand feet, we began to see the exquisite scenery. For about four hours we drove on the edge of the mountain, where just enough space had been cut off to build the road.

San Diego is a Delight.

After nine hours of riding we came to the city of San Diego and truly we thought we had found the North Pole, the contrast in temperature was so great. This is a delightful city and the exposition was very interesting, but the greatest event to me was the concert given by Madame Schumann-Heink with an accompaniment on the open air organ. She is very fond of children, and especially those in San Diego. They all call her "Mother." This concert was given free to the school children and a charge of only twenty-five cents was made for adults. You can easily imagine that more than ten thousand people were there to hear her.

Los Angeles and Pasadena are cities of homes. The Japs are hired as gardeners and most of them are very

DANDRUFF SO BAD HAIR FELL OUT

Itched All the Time. Could Not Sleep At All. Dandruff on Coat Collar.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"My trouble began with dandruff. Its first appearance did not itch very much but grew worse and worse until later on my head itched all the time especially at night after going to bed. I could not sleep at all. The dandruff was so bad that it could be seen on my coat collar and my hair fell out. I had this scalp trouble for about four months."

"I tried Hair Tonic and several other remedies but found none that would give me any relief until I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment about one week and I was completely healed." (Signed) M. L. Bott, Weatherby, Miss. Jan. 1, 1915.

Every Word Dame Fashion Says is Quickly Mirrored Here

We are proud of the kind of new merchandise we are receiving—we are proud of the reasonable prices at which we can offer it to our patrons. The fruits of our buyers' labors in the markets of New York and the other great merchandise centers are now beginning to be seen in every part of the store. Shipments are coming in still larger lots every day—so we can well say to you, "If it's NEW, you'll find it at Waco's Greatest Department Store."

The Curtain's Drawn Aside And the new Fall Styles make their bow—Bidding for your Approval and Discriminating Selection.

Such variety, such novelty, such beauty, seem to be beyond one's ability to describe. It is so much more satisfactory to SEE these clever new garments—and SO EASY. Our salespeople are anxious to show them—if for nothing else than the sheer pleasure of showing beautiful new things. Come study the new styles.

The Suits—$22.50 to $65.00

Distinctive and decidedly clever are the new Autumn Suits. Coats are in variety of lengths, the most popular being 28 to 34 inches. The materials employed are Serge, Gabardine, Poplins and Novelty Mixtures. Skirts are wide and collars show many variations of style, among which will be found the "stock," the "choker," and the "chin-chin." The range of colors allows much opportunity for the exercise of one's individual taste; among the leading shades are blue, navy, bottle green and fieldmouse grey. Fur and braid are the most prominent trimmings.

SPECIAL—Tailored Suits at $19.50

Very chic and charming are these, the best values we have ever offered at so small a price. Made of high-grade Serge and Gabardine, with button trimmings and fancy belts—they're a splendid buy. BE SURE TO SEE THEM.

Separate Skirts—$5.00 to $24.50

The new Fall Skirts are as refreshing as they are different and smart. Plaid versions of novel patterns, velvet corduroys, checks, striped woolens, fancy gabardines, chudahs, silk taffetas and satins are among the materials shown in our large and complete assemblage of latest skirt models. Yokes, panel fronts, large hip pockets and leather belts are some of the style-fancies that contribute to the novelty of this widely-varied collection.

SPECIAL—New Fall Skirts at $7.50

These are really remarkable values—all strictly new and correct, and possessing all the quality and elegance of skirts usually sold at much higher prices. In this assortment you have choice of sport and street models in great variety, as well as quite a number of the more "dressy" styles. Materials include chudahs, French serge, wool poplins, wool gabardines and satins. A full range of sizes.

The Coats—$5.98 to $29.50

The long separate coat will be a prominent factor in autumn fashions. Sport Coats will also continue in high favor. Our splendid array of the latest Coats includes checks, stripes, mixtures and solid colors, some with high self-collars and others with collars and cuffs of fur.

We also announce the receipt of a large number of most attractive styles in white Chinchilla Coats—swagger models in plain white or with checks and stripes; made with large patch pockets and wide belts and trimmed with fancy buttons. We enthusiastically recommend these to every lover of the ultra-fashionable.

Absolutely fast-color Zephyr Ginghams, in every new color, fancy, including plaid, stripes, checks and plain shades, affording practically unlimited opportunity for tasty combinations of colors and patterns for girls' and boys' school wear.

First Call Meeting of Euterpean Club.

On Friday morning, August 27, members of the Euterpean club met at the home of Mrs. Virginia Ryan, the object being to discuss plans for the coming year.

Some of the earlier plans have been changed. Since the Central Christian church has been offered as a place of meeting, it was decided that both the regular and open meetings during the coming season would be held at that place. Also that the club would hold a business meeting every Saturday afternoon at the Central Christian church at 4 o'clock, during the month of September, for the purpose of completing the associate membership list and assigning program work to different members.

Owing to the fact that Miss Charlotte Ligon, corresponding secretary, will enter the Von Ende School of Music in New York City early in September, Miss Lotta Pharr was appointed to fill that place, and Mrs. E. H. Haddix was appointed recording secretary in Miss Pharr's place.

Mrs. James Wright, vice president of the club, will in the future preside at all of the regular meetings, while Mrs. Wren will devote her time to the associate membership and other business of the club.

Miss Beulah Duncan will have complete charge of the study programs.

Mrs. Virginia Ryan, chairman of the artists' course, will also be director of the junior department. This department accepts members from ten to fifteen years of age, both boys and girls.

The three artist concerts to be given to associate members will be given by Mrs. Virginia Ryan, chairman of the artists' course, will also be director of the junior department. This department accepts members from ten to fifteen years of age, both boys and girls.

Mrs. Pearl Mackey Love will sing in Waco under the auspices of the Euterpean club in September, date to be announced.

Neighborhood Singing Schools.

David Manns, the violinist, writing to Farm and Fireside, urges farmers to encourage the singing school and neighborhood musical organizations in school houses. He asks: "What are you going to do with your school house this summer? I know a community which is planning to make its school house into a music club. Almost every neighborhood has in it some one who knows a little more about music than the rest of the people, and who would welcome the

TEXANS RESCUED BY WONDERFUL REMEDY

Find Swift Relief from Ailments of Years' Standing with First Dose of Treatment.

Many Texans needlessly suffer from stomach ailments and disorders of the digestive tract which appear to be particularly prevalent in the South. Many others have found a way to health by the use of May's Wonderful Remedy.

The first dose of this remedy proves what it will do.

T. B. Goodpasture, 802 Sabine street, Houston, wrote: "I took your treatment and passed several gall stones. Your preparation has worked simply wonderfully during my course of treatment."

May's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your druggist now and try it on an absolute guarantee—if not satisfactory money will be re- turned."

MISS DILWORTH MAKES ANNOUNCEMENT

Miss Anna Dilworth, who is in charge of the first episode of the historical pageant, announced a meeting of the committee at the library Monday at 4 p.m. The children are requested to join the helpers at 5 p.m.

COLUMBUS STREET AUXILIARY HAS A SOCIAL HOUR

In the parlors of the church on Friday afternoon the Woman's auxiliary of Columbus Street Baptist church held an interesting meeting. The program was prepared by the members of the Burleson-Price circle and proved most interesting. Later a social hour, the details of which were planned by the Laura Morrill circle, was enjoyed.

FAREWELL PARTY FOR MISS M'DANIEL OF TEMPLE

The home of Mrs. J. L. Stewart was the scene of much pleasure on Friday evening when a farewell party was given in honor of Miss Cora Lee M'Daniel of Temple, who has been spending several weeks with relatives and friends here. Forty-two was the chosen division of the evening, and after much fun and argument over the game the first prize was awarded to Miss Ruth Gibson and the consolation to Miss Helen Pudig. Punch and cake were served and later all bade farewell to the honoree, each wishing that she might be kept longer. Those who enjoyed this occasion were Misses Violet Bush, Helen Pudig, Gertrude Gerb, Ruth Gibson and Mildred Miller, Messrs. Ed Roy Miller, Leverett Fitzpatrick, Leon Stanley, Abner Bush, Edwin Stuart and Robert Abel.

JUVENILE BENEFIT FOR PUBLIC NURSE

Much is being said in praise of the clever little play which was presented at the home of Mrs. J. H. Henshaw on Thursday evening, for the benefit of the public nurse fund. Little Misses Martha Henshaw and Cleo Brazelton were the instigators of the move and trained the children who took part in the play which was entitled "The Rescue of Miss Winsome." So active did it prove that though only 5 cents was charged for admission, the sum of $13 was realized. Those who participated in the performance were Ottis Ligon, Margaret Henshaw, Cleo Brazelton, Dorothy Bell, Maria Brazelton, Frances Zixina, Elva Killingsworth, Frances Abernathy, Elizabeth Henshaw, Martha Henshaw, Caroline Pryor, George Pryor, Jr., Alice Baker, James Boynton, Jane Hall and Dorothy Rinehardt.

FRIDAY NIGHT AT THE HUACO CLUB

A large crowd enjoyed the weekly dinner and dance at the Huaco club on Friday night. The largest dinner party was given by Miss Alice Brazelton, who had as guests Misses Aneta Shelton, Esther Woods, Mabel Bunch all of Waco and Misses Lucile Lewis and Nancy Ivy Brazelton with Messrs. Dick Smith, E. A. Miller, Hugh White, Alfred and Lilleburne Peterson of Marlin, and La Rue Coleman of Dallas. Mrs. Brazelton chaperoned.

Mr. Doyle Eastland entertained in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Lynch of South Carolina and had as guests Dr. and Mrs. Guy Witt, Misses Ida Orand, Noema Eastland, Lucile Hill and Mrs. Loretta Reeves with Dr. and Mrs. Wallace, R. B. Nutt and Miss Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Westbrook formed a pair consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Davis, Mrs. Pearl Lovelace and Mrs. Morris of Marlin.

Malcolm Lindsay as dinner host entertained the Misses Estel Foster, Monette Colgin, Eva Austin of Laredo, Virginia Spence of Dallas, and Emma Farrell, with Messrs. Ed Patton and Baker Duncan.

Noted at another table were Messrs. and Mesdames Leslie Gardner, Buford McWhirter and Hal Moody.

K. H. C. CLASS ENTERTAINED FOR MISS NELLIE BUCK

The K. H. C. class of the Seventh and James Sunday school was entertained Thursday evening in the home of Prof. I. N. Odorn of South Ninth street, in honor of their teacher, Miss Nellie Buck. Half a hundred young women gathered on the lawn for a most interesting program, which consisted of the following numbers:

Voice solo, Miss Sadie Mae Miller.

Welcome address, Miss Grace Jenkins.

Piano number, Miss Lucile Puett.

Class history, Miss Emma Morrill.

Voice number, Miss Florence Johnson.

Address, Prof. Odorn.

Re-election of Miss Nellie Buck as teacher.

Refreshments were served later and brought to a close this very pleasant occasion. Those present were Misses Nellie and Miriam Buck, Edna Broiles, Gladys McKinley, Ruby McKinley, Emma Farrell, with Messrs. Ed Patton and Baker Duncan.

Leyhe Piano Co's Bankrupt Stock Is Bought By Adams & Allcorn

SALE STARTS MONDAY—THIS IS AN OPPORTUNITY AND AN OBLIGATION—
CASH OR EASY TERMS—FREE DELIVERY WITHIN 50 MILES OF WACO.

The people of Central Texas that have been wanting a Piano or Player-Piano for years, but never felt able to buy, will be glad to learn that the NEW PIANO HOUSE of Waco (Adams & Allcorn) have purchased the enormous stock lately owned by the Leyhe Company from their creditors at war-time prices, and at prices which enable them to sell at retail for less than they cost wholesale. No other concern can afford to sell such high-grade instruments for so little money. Buying them as we did is the reason we can do it. After these are gone we cannot afford to sell any more at these prices, as others will cost us more than we are asking for these.

EVERY INSTRUMENT FULLY GUARANTEED.

Every instrument has been carefully gone over. It will be tuned, furnished with a handsome stool and either delivered to your home in Waco or shipped to your freight station free of all charges. Remember the location, for this sale is at the Leyhe Company's stand

SAYS WILSON WILL WIN.

New 2,000,000 Votes Stronger Than

His Party, Says Senator Ashurst.

In his capacity as political field lieutenant and confidential informant of President Wilson, Senator Henry F. Ashurst started today for a fortnight's canvass of Michigan, with the declaration that it will be "Wilson in 1916, and the rest nowhere." Coming at the end of a 14,000-mile tour of the United States, made at the president's request, and lasting since March 1 last, Senator Ashurst's statements were regarded by politicians here as significant.

The position of the United States due to the European war and the trouble in Mexico, has made the president the logical party leader, says the senator. Mr. Ashurst on his tour has talked with cowboys and bankers, lumberjacks and professional men, and, after carefully weighing and digesting the sentiment he has found, he declares that Mr. Wilson is today 2,000,000 votes stronger than his party. He says that if there were a presidential election today Mr. Wilson would carry New York handily, and come closer to sweeping Michigan than any other living democrat.

"Woodrow Wilson will run for president," he said, "because he will have no other choice. I measure my words when I say that he will be re-elected president without any trouble. The people will have no other leader."

He spoke with both Woodrow Wilson and for the United States that he became president at such a time, fortunate for him because the times made him the one great outstanding figure in civilization today, and fortunate for the United States because he is the one calm, resourceful leader whose peculiar abilities enabled him to steer the country safely through the international difficulties that have beset it.

From the standpoint of the great mass of the people there is but one question, and that relates to the war in Europe. The people know they have the one man to lead them safely through Woodrow Wilson is that man.

"Republican congressmen are in a bad way. The denouement Wilson offers for the sake of their constituents, and they praise him privately because there is no other thing for them to do."

"The republicans have but one forlorn hope. Some of them affect to believe and many of them do sincerely believe that there is one more president wrapped up in the tariff question. They will find their mistake a sad one. The tariff question is entirely submerged in the great issues the war in Europe has brought to the foreground. The solution of the tariff question lies in a tariff commission, and this idea has many converts. We have come to see the error in wasting the public wealth by giving over this question to weeks and weeks of congressional debate."

"Neither will the currency question detract greatly from the great issues involved. Many republicans, notably Senator Weeks, voted for the currency bill."—Detroit Correspondence of New York Times.

QUEEN.

Monday and Tuesday George Fawcett in "The Majesty of the Law."

Belongs to one of the finest families in Virginia, the son of old Judge Kent of the circuit court, and be-throated to beautiful Virginia Fairfax, young Jackson Kent had everything before him. When the pearls stolen at Colonel Monroe's ball were found in his overcoat pocket and he would make no explanation Jackson's future was blasted.

He left the county seat and was not heard of again until his induction in Evansville for enforcement from the local bandit. It did not help him any that his father by the irony of fate should sit on the case; rather made it harder. Judge Kent imposed the maximum sentence, ten years. The spectacle of the father on the bench forced by his sense of honor and duty to sentence his own son was one of the saddest sights in the history of Evans county.

The unravelling of the tangle and the discovery of the real culprit gives the county seat a chance for rejoicing. If you enjoy a play with heart interest, honor and duty all rolled into one you will be sure to see "The Majesty of the Law."

Glowing endorsements from the most prominent women in America:

"It is a tremendous warning to every woman."—Dr. Anna Shaw, President National Council of Women, and National Woman Suffrage association.

"Every woman in the country should see it."—Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, president National Political equality league; "Should be seen by all mothers and daughters."—Mrs. Frederick Nathan, president National Consumers' league; "Thrilling, tremendous lesson."—Mrs. James Lee LaLau, State Federation of Women's clubs; "Absorbing, interesting from beginning to end."—Mrs. Stanley McCormick.

Friday and Saturday, Hazel Dawn.

Hazel Dawn, one of the screen's most beautiful and charming stars, also proves herself an actress of genuine dramatic power in the Famous Players Film company's appealing photo-adaptation of "The Heart of Jennifer," by Edith Barnard Delano, author of another Famous Players screen triumph, "Raas."

"The Heart of Jennifer" is the story of a woman's strong love for her husband, which prompts her to place upon herself the guilt of a crime committed by his sister. In the role of Jennifer, Hazel Dawn suggests with infinite tenderness and pathos the heroic fortitude of the sacrificing wife. "The Heart of Jennifer" is a photoplay that conforms with the highest standard of the Famous Players Film Co.

HIPPODROME.

Week's Program.

Monday and Tuesday—The Wheels of Justice, four reel Vitagraph Blue Ribbon feature, with Dorothy Kelly, James Morrison and George Cooper. Wednesday and Thursday—The House of a Thousand Candles, five reel Selig with Harry Mestayer and Grace Darmond.

Friday and Saturday—"Infatuation," four reel Mutual Masterpicture with Margarita Fischer.

The Wheels of Justice.

"The Wheels of Justice," a Vitagraph Blue Ribbon feature in four reels, showing at the Hippodrome Monday and Tuesday, should prove a most interesting melodrama. When the dust of "train-robbery" innocence to justice cleared up, the most likeable characters in the production will, undoubtedly, be Tug Riley, the convict, whose character so admirably suits the bulk of Anders Randolph. Eulalie Jensen has the most thankless part in the play, but she enacts it with distinction. Dorothy Kelly and James Morrison play the juvenile leads. Mr. Morrison's personality wins the sympathy of the spectator.

The escape of the convicts from prison is well handled, the fire hose doing good service as the means of egress. The draw bridge episode in which the machine containing the convict plunges through the open draw bridge has been capably worked out. Exceptional credit is due the director and cast for the opening scenes at the reception when Rita Reynolds first captures Ralph, the feminine duellist and the intuitive suspicion of mother and son were very cleverly impressed upon the screen.

"It is a tremendous warning to every woman."—Dr. Anna Shaw, President National Council of Women, and National Woman Suffrage association.

"Every woman in the country should see it."—Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, president National Political equality league; "Should be seen by all mothers and daughters."—Mrs. Frederick Nathan, president National Consumers' league; "Thrilling, tremendous lesson."—Mrs. James Lee LaLau, State Federation of Women's clubs; "Absorbing, interesting from beginning to end."—Mrs. Stanley McCormick.

Friday and Saturday, Hazel Dawn.

Hazel Dawn, one of the screen's most beautiful and charming stars, also proves herself an actress of genuine dramatic power in the Famous Players Film company's appealing photo-adaptation of "The Heart of Jennifer," by Edith Barnard Delano, author of another Famous Players screen triumph, "Raas."

"The Heart of Jennifer" is the story of a woman's strong love for her husband, which prompts her to place upon herself the guilt of a crime committed by his sister. In the role of Jennifer, Hazel Dawn suggests with infinite tenderness and pathos the heroic fortitude of the sacrificing wife. "The Heart of Jennifer" is a photoplay that conforms with the highest standard of the Famous Players Film Co.

MARKET REPORT

COTTON

New York, Aug. 28.—There was a renewal of the general buying movement in the cotton market here today, which sent prices more than $2.50 per bale above Friday's closing figures, and closed the market strong at a net advance of 25 to 29 points, with December contracts selling at 10.20c or about $4 per bale above the low level of last Monday.

The opening was firm at an advance of 12 to 15 points on overnight buying orders and a broadening demand, encouraged by further rains in the south, the reiteration of bullish predictions as to the showing of cotton condition reports and the continued rumors that German interests were replacing cotton sold out at the beginning of last summer.

There was a good deal of realizing and rather more favorable crop reports from the south, which apparently accounted for some selling for a reaction, but all offerings were readily taken at trifling concessions and the demand became even more active later in the morning, with October closing up 29 points, January to 10.34, while March touched 10.53, with active months generally showing net gains of from 25 to 29 points. Last prices were at practically the best of the year.

The strength of the market seemed to find some of the early sellers particularly as reports that cotton was selling at a tenderable basis in the south were not accompanied by an indication of increased hedging, so the firm spurt of prices seemed to be largely the result of covering. A private crop report made the condition of the crop 71.5 against 77.9 last month.

Local warehouse stocks are losing moderately as a result of exports, and the statistical position has been somewhat strengthened as a result of continued full spinners' takings. Detailed weather reports showed heavy rains in northern and central Texas.

Port receipts today 4408; season 10,722; 855; exports 8242; season 8,322; stock 668,694.

New Orleans

New Orleans, Aug. 21.—Bulls continued to force advances in the cotton market today, basing their buying on bullish private condition reports and fresh rains in Texas. The rise was maintained up to the close, while the market at one point of 35 to 40 points or within a point of the best of the session. It was an active and excited day around the future offerings, but not so active in the way of hedge against actual cotton.

The opening was at the advance on good cotton, brokers and large buying orders to fill some of them apparently resulting from reports that a prominent private bureau would come out with a cotton estimate for the south, 20 per cent of the normal, while another source was credited with condition figures of 69.7 as compared with 76.9 a month ago. The interior was a large buyer of futures, purchases being far in excess of offerings in cotton, not so active in the way of hedge against actual cotton.

Cotton accounts again were generally unfavorable and buying was stimulated by the storm areas appearing over Texas, bulls, making much of the heavy rains noted at a few points in that state.

At times realizing on long cotton brought about small reactions but on the whole offerings from this market were not large enough to exert pressure. The market was given a firm under tone by the belief in an unfavorable condition report by the government Monday.

WHEAT

Chicago, Aug. 28.—Lowest values for the crop were registered by wheat today at the opening. There was a temporary rally on covering by shorts, but offerings became freer and the market declined again, closing irregular, 3c lower to 74c higher at 97 1/4c for September and 95 1/4c for December. Corn, after a new low opening, a shade higher, to 16c lower, firming up on forecast of unsettled weather in the northwest and closed strong 14 1/2c net higher, with September at 73 1/2c and December 63 1/2c to 63 3/4c.

The strength manifested by corn in the first hour continued to the finish, except for a slight decline after the top point had been reached.

Wheat sagged at the opening to the lowest price recorded by the crop. There was a fair rally on short covering, but the close was near the low point of the day.

There was little business in the provision market.

Money No Consideration.

Mother Jones said to a reporter at one of the Industrial Relations commission's hearing in Washington:

"The employers' argument in that case looked very altruistic on the surface. It was like the young wife in the new dress at the shore."

"By Jingo!" said her husband, as she slipped on her dinner jacket, "you look nice in that new dress, love, for a fact. It cost me a heap of money, though."

"You dear old thing," said his wife, as she pranced before the glass, "what do I care for money when it's a question of pleasing you?"—Philadelphia Ledger.

Captain J. M. Miller, Veteran Fire Fighter, Will Be Honored

Engineer of Baylor Engine Company
Completes 25 Years of Service
Next Saturday.

Captain J. M. Miller, engineer of the Baylor engine company, next Saturday completes twenty-five years of service in the Waco Volunteer fire department. In honor of the occasion, members of the Baylor Engine company will be hosts at an entertainment to be given in the station on South Fifth street Tuesday, September 7. Captain Miller will be 64 in October and is perhaps the oldest man both in point of years and in continuous service now in active service in the department. For the past 19 years he has been engineer for No. 4, Baylor Engine company, and occupied similar position for six years just previously with the West End company. The veteran fire fighter will receive the felicitations of many who will gather at the entertainment in his honor.

Cotton Palace Board Meets Monday Night

Beginning tomorrow, the directors of the Cotton Palace will hold regular weekly meetings until the opening of the exposition in November. The meeting tomorrow night will be presided over by John F. Wright, acting president in the absence of President Asher Sanger. Details of the exposition are advancing to the stage that they require constant attention. It is probable that the program will be closed at the meeting tomorrow night, and released for publication.

By the way, have you heard the New State House orchestra, 6 to 8 p. m.—(Adv.)

LABOR DAY PROGRAM GIVEN TO THE PUBLIC

CELEBRATION AT COTTON PALACE PARK WILL FOLLOW PARADE.

GRAND BALL IN THE EVENING

List of Athletic Contests and Prizes
Announced—Speeches Begin at 1:30, Events at 3 p. m.

The complete program for the Labor Day celebration at Cotton Palace park, which will be under the auspices of the Central Labor Council, was announced yesterday by the committee in charge of the arrangements. The celebration on the grounds will begin at 1:30 with speaking and music. Previously, a parade of the various unions of the city will be held, and will be followed by a basket dinner on the Cotton Palace grounds.

E. L. Duke, A. H. B. Corneliusen, Judge Giles P. Lester and City Attorney John Maxwell, among men, will be the speakers. The athletic games will begin at 3 o'clock sharp. The games consist of twenty-five events. The committee in charge of the games is composed of A. H. B. Corneliusen, S. J. McGlasson, W. T. Foster, E. A. Harrell and Mrs. Ruth Walker. E. W. Conway, physical director of the Y. M. C. A., will act as official starter for all the events.

The celebration will be brought to a close with a grand ball in the Cotton Palace coliseum which will begin at 8:30. The ball will be for the benefit of the Central Labor Council.

Six prizes will be given for various features of the dance. Music will be furnished by Alessandro's Symphony orchestra. The committee in charge of the ball is composed of A. H. B. Corneliusen, W. T. Foster, William Fischer, Mrs. W. T. Foster, Mrs. Ruth Walker and Mrs. E. H. Miller.

Following is the program of the various contests, athletic and other, and the prizes which have been donated by merchants and business men:

NEW METHOD GAS RANGES

Have More Exclusive Patented Gas Saving and Convenience Features Than Any Gas Ranges Made.

Compare the New Method with any other Gas Range at any price and you will be convinced of this more forcibly than I can convey in a printed statement.

New Method Oven Construction.

Study the illustration. See how the flame travels along the bottom flame plate. It does not touch the oven bottom. The heat travels up the sides and down on whatever you are baking. (Follow the Arrows.) The same flame used in baking is used in the broiling.

Far Superior to the Impractical Glass Door

Steam and moisture soon obscure the glass oven doors, making it impossible to look inside. Then, too, the possibility of breaking is great.

Movable Simmering Burner and Lighter

With this device you can light one burner from the other without matches. There are no pilot lights to be blown out by gusts of wind.

The New Method Consumes 20 to 40 Per Cent Less Gas

than any gas range made. This is not a mere advertising statement, but a fact that is easily proven by the accompanying illustration and description of burner.

Enamelled Steel Burners Guaranteed for Five Years.

The cast iron burner found on every other gas range has drilled flame holes, retarding the flow of gas. New Method burners are of steel, enamelled inside as well as out, affording an easy flow of gas and enabling 3 1/2 times more air to enter the air mixer than any Cast Iron Burner.

New Sales Manager for Haynes Auto Co.

A. G. Seiberling, general manager of the Haynes Automobile company, Kokomo, Ind., announces the appointment of D. L. Watson to the position of general sales manager to succeed R. Crawford, who has resigned.

Just previous to his promotion, Watson was assistant sales manager. He has been associated with the company for fourteen years, in various capacities. Starting as an apprentice in the shops, his hard work and ambition soon won recognition. Since then his promotions have been rapid and consistent. He has served in all the departments of the company and has gained a broad experience in all the branches of automobile work. His ability to overcome all obstacles, together with his never ending supply of good humor, insure his success in his new position.

This announcement closely follows the report that the company has just terminated the most prosperous season in its history. A stock dividend of 100 per cent, raising the capital from $500,000 to $1,200,000 has been declared. At the same time the number of directors has been increased from nine to eleven, the new directors being C. F. Headington and A. G. Seiberling, who was also elected vice president of the company.

The declaration of the big stock dividend came shortly after the payment of a cash dividend of 22 per cent to the stockholders, and is considered a concrete evidence of the profitable business the company has enjoyed during the past year.

"00-y! My Corn-n!" H-m, Use "Gets-It"

Then You'll Have No Corns to Bump! Your Corns Will Come "Clean Off," Quick!

Did you ever see a corn peel off after you've used "Gets-It" on it? Well, it's a moving-picture for your life! And you hardly do thing to it.

Put a little "Gets-It" on, it dries at once. There's nothing to stick. Put shoes and stockings on right over it. No pains to fuss. 48 hours—corn gone! "Gets-It" never hurts the true flesh, never makes toes swell. You have tried almost everything else for corns, you will be much more surprised to see how well it comes off with "Gets-It." Quit limping and wrinkling up your face with corn wrinkles. Try "Gets-It" tonight on corn, callus, wart or bunion, and you'll be glad you read this.

"Gets-It" is sold by all druggists, 25¢ a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

COTTON PALACE NOW BEING ADVERTISED

ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND POST CARDS TO BE MAILED OUT BY WHOLESALERS.

Auto Streamers Can Be Secured at Garages—Newspapers Carry ing Display Ads.

The Cotton Palace is being advertised in a remarkable manner. The publicity committee has been using unusual methods in acquainting the people of Central Texas in particular and Texas in general with the educational and entertaining features of the most unique and most popular exposition in the southwest.

One hundred thousand post cards were distributed during the past week to the wholesale and larger retail dealers of Waco. These cards will be mailed out to their customers both in Waco and to various points over the state with their mounted bills and statements. The recipients are respectfully urged to write to their friends on them inviting them to visit the Cotton Palace from November 6 to 21. The post cards are of an original design, giving a magnificent view of the beautiful Cotton Palace grounds and the attractive buildings. They are a work of art and any one will be glad to receive them. They contain valuable information concerning the size of the grounds and buildings.

The publicity department has also placed beautifully colored lithographed streamers to be used on autos in every garage in Waco. Owners of machines are asked to show their loyalty to the Cotton Palace by calling at a garage and purchasing at least one of the streamers to their car. They are free to do so. Every machine in the county ought to carry these streamers from now until the close of the Cotton Palace. They can also be had at the office of Postmaster W. H. Hoffmann or at the office of W. V. Crawford at Sanger Brothers.

During the coming week the new red and white signs that has been purchased for the use of the advertising department will be started on an advertising campaign that will cover every city, village and hamlet within a radius of 100 miles of Waco. A capable man in charge of the machine will distribute window hangers, window cards, streamers, red hats, posters, Cotton Palace streamers and window posters showing agricultural and livestock pictures, chicken show, dog show, horse races, Cavallo's band and other attractions. All of this advertising will carry the Cotton Palace name and other information concerning Cotton Palace features in highly lithographed colors.

The famous little red automobile will be kept on the move every day from now until the opening of the exposition. It will require several trips to cover the entire territory.

All of the big daily papers of the state, and every newspaper in the hundred mile radius, will carry display advertising telling all about the Cotton Palace. The newspaper campaign will be commenced about two weeks before the opening of the show.

A colossal billboard advertising campaign has also been arranged. Hundreds of immense colored lithographs eight feet by sixteen feet, will be placed on billboards all over Central Texas.

Attractive envelope enclosures for practically every feature of the Cotton Palace will be provided and furnished free to those who send out large quantities of mail.

The publicity department is determined to see that everybody knows all about the Cotton Palace and that the dates are November 6 to 21.

San Antonio Gets New Tire Factory

San Antonio, Tex., Aug. 28.—A $100,000 factory to manufacture the new Luck pneumatic puncture-proof automobile tire, is to be erected in San Antonio by the Luck Tire and Manufacturing company. The new tire was invented by John J. Luck of San Antonio. A demonstration of the qualities of the tire has been conducted for the last eighteen months by those who are supporting the enterprise. A set of Luck tires traveled 14,000 miles on a trial run which led over some of the roughest roads in the country. No puncture or any other trouble whatever resulted and the tires still are good for a number of thousand miles.

Prominent business men of San Antonio and Southwest Texas have interviewed the men in the plant among them Ike T. Pryor, Cyrus B. Lucas, J. R. Blocker, Adolph Wagner, Charles L. Nelson and others.

Preferred stock in the sum of $100,000 is being placed. If this sum is paid in by December 14, 1915, the funds will be used to immediately construct the factory. If not, all money subscribed will be retained by the subscribers of stock. From the early earnings of the company, each owner of preferred stock will be refunded the entire stock in by Tuesday night. It will probably be several days before, however, the shoe store will be opened to the public as many alterations will be made in the building.

Bright and early Monday morning the Grocery-So-Different will open for business in its new quarters, 412 Austin avenue. Under the personal direction of George G. Stubblefield, proprietor, moving into the new location began yesterday, yet the crowds that swarmed into the popular grocery could not tell that it was "moving day" so well was everything ordered.

Manager Sanger of Famous Back from Trip to Markets

After spending a month in New York, Joe Sanger, manager of the Famous, has returned to Waco. He purchased a large amount of fall and winter goods for the Famous, and said that he believed business would be much better from now on than it had been for some time. There seems to be plenty of money in the East, Mr. Sanger said, much of it coming from Europe.

In speaking of business conditions in the East, Mr. Sanger said the wholesalers are very well satisfied. There is some complaint, though, on the part of the retailers and jobbers, just as can be found in every state in the Union today, due to financial conditions.

The McRae-Grimland Shoe company will begin moving into the building formerly occupied by the Grocery-So-Different tomorrow morning and will

GAS COMPANY LOSES MONEY ON OPERATIONS

ASSISTANT MANAGER BOOTH
SAYS MORE PEOPLE MUST BE SERVED TO MAKE MONEY.

Plans Under Way to Educate Public as to How Cheap Fuel Will Be Saving.

The gas company lost almost $1000 on natural gas operation in May, June and July. This does not include any interest on investment or depreciation on equipment.

The above facts are brought out in reports recently compiled by the Texas Power and Light company.

When asked his opinion on this matter, Assistant Manager Fred L. Booth said: "It is true that during May, June and July we lost money by serving natural gas to the people of Waco, but if the plans we have outlined are successful we will soon have natural gas so popular that everyone will be using it. This is the only way we can hope to make any money on our operation.

"A large number of the people do not realize just how cheap natural gas is and furthermore they are not acquainted with all the conveniences of having gas in their homes.

"We have secured several additional salesmen within the last few weeks and have already made preparations to educate the people in the use of natural gas and its big convenience.

"With the heating value which it has, the natural gas supplied here is far more economical than either coal or wood. Then too, it is always ready to light and heat can be obtained at once. Furthermore no investment in fuel is necessary when your house is piped for gas, for with gas your fuel is paid for as it is used.

"As a precaution against leaks, we are inspecting and testing all piping jobs which we install and are giving certificates of inspection with these jobs, so that the customer may know the work has been properly done.

"Most persons are even lower than expected and we expect their influence and recommendation will assist us in securing more customers.

"In order to be ready when cold weather comes, we are urging everyone to have their houses piped now and avoid the rush which is sure to take place later."

Notice to Subscribers.

Delivery routes in the City of Waco are in the hands of independent carriers, who buy their papers at wholesale prices.

Subscriptions are due them, not the Waco Morning News. They are under heavy bond, not only to give the best delivery service, but to pay for their papers each month.

Their remuneration is the difference between the wholesale price and the retail price which they receive from subscribers.

Their profit is such that they cannot afford to pay for their papers month by month.

They are not required, and they are advised against, delivering the paper to anyone who does not pay in advance.

These carriers are all earnest, hard working men and they will appreciate any courtesy shown them.

The Morning News should be delivered through the City of Waco by 6:30 a.m., and subscribers failing to receive the paper at that time will confer a favor by phoning the Circulation Department, both phones 1122, and a copy will be sent by special messenger.

PATRONIZE HOME SCHOOLS.

One phase of the patronage of home industry that has not received as much emphasis in the local campaign as it deserves is that of patronizing home schools, and yet this is one of the most important of them all. And the business men, who are lending their support to the home industry propaganda, will do well to consider this additional phase presented by the home school, for it is the business interests of the town that will profit most by a proper patronage of local educational institutions.

Baylor university, oldest and largest of the local schools, had an attendance of 150 in the regular college department last year from Waco. The attendance upon the fine arts department and the summer school was sufficient to bring this number to 300. Yet about fifty students went outside of Waco last year for training which they could have received just as well and a great deal more cheaply at Baylor. The fact that 300 students of the city are receiving satisfactory instruction in academic and fine arts courses at Baylor is conclusive evidence that that institution is living up to its every claim and is worthy of an even larger patronage from its home people than it is receiving. The long and eminent history of Baylor, its contribution to the educational, political, religious, moral, social and business life of the state is strong testimony to the character of men and women it turns out and encouragement given it in enabling it to perform still larger service in this direction in effort well bestowed.

But there are other schools in the city that are worthy of the patronage of home people, though none that is doing the same line of work that Baylor is doing. The Academy of Sacred Heart, Douglas' Select School, and Toby's and Hill's Business Colleges give instruction of the best along their particular lines and all of them deserve the patronage and confidence of local people.

All of these schools are assets of the city that should not be overlooked. We rejoice in their prosperity and urge our neighbors to patronize them. This is all well and good. But they need, as they merit, the full patronage of home people, also, and we trust that the coming year will find this more nearly true than ever before.

Peach growers of Georgia have learned the secret of co-operative marketing and as a result they realized $2,000,000 on only a partial crop this year.

The Ennis News says there is more public work going on there now than at any previous time in the city's history, which shows that Ennis has not been bankrupted by the war.

There are a lot of Texans who are not paupers in spite of the low price of cotton. Texas contributed $425,621 to the federal government in individual income taxes during the past year.

Talking of Yankee initiative, Ohio, with four candidates for the presidency, furnishes an example. Favorite sons of the Buckeye state who have already cast their hats into the ring are Myron T. Herrick, ex-governor and ambassador to France; Theodore E. Burton, ex-United States senator; Frank B. Willis, governor and former representative, and Warren G. Harding, United States senator, and ex-representative.

MR. BAILEY AND HIS FRIENDS.

Probably no other man who has ever occupied public or private station in Texas has enjoyed so large a circle of loyal and zealous friends as ex-Senator Bailey. And his hold upon his friends has always been personal rather than political. Yet on such occasions as the big banquet in his honor at Dallas Friday night we cannot but wonder, if he were perfectly candid with himself, if he would not utter a secret prayer that he might be delivered from some of these zealous friends.

And why?

Simply because these friends are so engrossed in their admiration of him that they believe they are doing him the highest honor they can confer upon him in urging him to again make the race for public office and pledging him their loyal support in that event. They never stop to consider whether such a course would be the best thing for the state or the party, or whether such a course would comply with the wishes and happiness of the ex-senator. Mr. Bailey has announced that he does not care to enter politics, as it is involved in seeking for office, again. He is enjoying an honorable and lucrative practice before the highest court of the land. He is now afforded the opportunity to lay up an ample competence for his old age and his family. He is relieved of the bitter antagonisms which his career in active politics engendered. He has an opportunity to contend for those political principles which he believes correct without being charged with seeking a personal end. He has already held the highest office this state can give him and were he to return to the senate his views would be so out of harmony with his party colleagues as to make it embarrassing for him, this consideration having been one of the large ones which led him to his decision not to offer for re-election when his last term expired.

Both Mr. Bailey and Toastmaster Williams emphasized at the banquet that it was not a political occasion and that the honoree of the affair was out of active politics. Mr. Bailey is a great man in many ways, and we admire the many strong traits which he possesses. But there are other avenues of service and means of honoring deserving citizens than the holding of public office, and after having given over twenty years of the best years of his life to the service of his country his friends should be willing to permit him to enjoy the privileges of private life and pursue the profession of the law. They can gratify their own desires in mingling with him on such occasions as he finds for social intercourse and hearing him discuss public issues at such times as he may elect.

It is in the retirement to private life that Mr. Bailey and his family have found their greatest happiness, and his enthusiastic friends should consider his and his family's wishes in the matter of his future occupation, rather than their own. Otherwise, they are not his true friends.

Twenty-nine of the leading college publications of the North and East have placed the ban on liquor advertisements of all forms.

Latest advices from the front are to the effect that General von Mackensen, one of the leading commanders of the German forces against the Russians, is not a Scotchman.

Having celebrated Hardy Day on Friday, why not a 'Go to Church' day today. We need a spiritual message as we go along through life just as much as we need physical and mental relaxation.

In withstanding the clouds until after the Hardy Day game was over, our friend Dr. Block is entitled to a cold drink out of that new silver water service which the Y. M. B. L. presented to Ellis Hardy.

Capt. J. M. Miller of the Baylor fire station has saved hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of property and possibly a number of lives in the twenty-five years that he has served Waco as a fire captain and this city appreciates his loyal and efficient service.

Houston has come to the rescue of the distressed farmers of the storm stricken region near that city by raising $40,000 among its bankers to be loaned at 4 per cent to the farmers with or without security, according to the ability of the borrower.

For an humble secretary of war to call down an ex-president may strike the egotist of Oyster Bay as less majestic, but in our opinion the Strenuous One got just what he deserved in the indirect rebuke from Mr. Garrison.

Those Chicago and Boston dealers who refuse to furnish the city of Atlanta or its merchants with goods because of the lynching of Leo M. Frank are just as great extremists, in their mental attitude, as the men who formed the mob.

BOOMERANG LIQUOR ADVERTISEMENTS.

At a time when, in the higher circles of advertising, advertisers, advertising agents and agencies, and managers of periodicals are coming to agree that liquor advertisements must go, it is well to note what the trade that already is under the ban does by way of reply, notes the Christian Science Monitor. With the tide of prohibitory sentiment and legislation rolling up in their rear and dooming their business, and with many of the best journals of the United States excluding their advertising (not to mention their reading notices attacking temperance, temperance workers and temperance legislation), the outlook for the liquor interests grows more dubious. It prompts to action that brings consequences which those concerned can hardly have considered.

To illustrate: The journals that still are willing to derive income from the liquor traffic, and that get the bulk of the urban and national business of the trade, two series of advertisements fostering sales of liquor have lately been published. In one the effort has been to prove that the makers of the republic were by habit and by belief the sort of men who would never have favored present day temperance ideals nor countenanced restrictive legislation. In another series more recently begun the major premise of the argument of the writer who serves the liquor makers and dealers is that modern prohibition is a variant of the Puritanism that once dominated England and New England. That was bigoted, narrow and fanatical. So will be the neo-Puritanism. Thus the argument runs. Will it appeal to many readers who see the journals using such advertising? We believe not very many. The decisive answer in most cases will be based, as it has been in the past, on the moral convictions of the personal habits of the individual, and not on the records of groups of men of the past or on their theories of how to live. If prohibition is gaining force in the United States today it is not because of what the Puritans or the framers of the constitution did or did not do. It is because standards of athletic competition, applied natural science, efficient business administration, and the conservative movement all stand back of morals and religion and say "quit" to the liquor maker, vendor and user. Contemporary evidence of laboratory, workshop and engine room says the same thing to a contemporary ethical and self-regarding ideal.

Nevertheless these tactics of the liquor interests in dragging in the founders of the nation and the Puritans of the colonial days, extolling the one group and denouncing the other, are worth noting if only for their ineptitude and needless affront of elements of the community that object to such free and easy dealing with the past and with its finest men. Such advertising has a boomerang effect.

The Hon. Bill Barnes says the Hon. Ted Roosevelt is our Bismarck and that long dismal moan you hear comes from the shade of the old Iron Chancellor, according to the New Orleans States.

If the Texas experiment station had done nothing else this summer its demonstration of the fact that there is a use for the goat and that he is well fitted for packing silos, it would have justified its existence during that time.

In spite of the activities of the German submarines, the British steamship companies are still telling the people of Great Britain they should not miss the opportunity of seeing the Panama-Pacific exposition.

Kansas can teach Texas a lesson in regard to handling of paupers. Twenty of the 105 counties of the Sunflower state have no poor houses or poor farms and where these farms exist they are self-sustaining. For the year ending July 1, only 900 paupers were care for in the entire state.

Illinois is willing that the Republican presidential nomination shall not go by default next summer and is offering three favorite sons on the altar—Senator L. Y. Sherman, Minority Leader James R. Mann, and Mayor William Hale Thompson, the millionaire cowboy executive of Chicago. There ought to be material in this bunch to suit almost any taste.

Falls county is going to hold an agricultural and educational fair at Marlin, October 8 and 9, one day being given over to exhibits from the farm and the other to exhibits from the schools. Such an exhibition ought to result in stimulating a wider interest in both the work of the farm and that of the school room and similar affairs ought to be held all over the state.

BOYS' CAMP FEATURE OF COTTON PALACE LARGEST SUMMER SESSION AT BAYLOR

ABOUT NINETY PRIZE WINNING MEMBERS OF CLUBS TO BE ENTERTAINED.

INSTRUCTION SCHOOL PLANNED

COMMENCEMENT WEDNESDAY

Experts on Agriculture Will Give Youngsters Practical Talks for Four Days Encampment.

Co-Operative Home New Addition to Equipment—President Brooks Back from Trip to Coast.

About ninety boys from various parts of Texas will form one of the most interesting and worth while features of the Cotton Palace. They will be the prize winning members of the boys' corn, cotton, beef and pig clubs of Texas. These boys will comprise the student body of an encampment school which will be conducted at the Cotton Palace from November 13 to 16. Tents and a model camp for the youngsters will be provided by the National Guard companies of this city. A commandant will be furnished by the A. and M. college.

The encampment school will be conducted co-operatively by the United States department of agriculture and the extension service of the Agricultural and Mechanical college. The boys' winners from each county will be sent to the school. This will be made a permanent feature of the Cotton Palace, and the attendance next year will be much greater.

Instruction from A. and M. college and government experts will give the boys practical talks on various phases of cotton and corn production.

There will also be a pleasure side to the encampment. The musical feature will be in charge of F. D. Steger, secretary of the A. and M. Young Men's Christian Association. He will put the boys through a course of fun, physical and devotional exercises. The camp will continue four days.

H. H. Williamson, who is in charge of this work throughout the state, will be superintendent of the encampment.

Lucky is the boy who wins the prize in his county for this encampment. Captain Weatherhead and other officers of the local National Guard companies will do everything possible to make the boys comfortable and happy while they are at the Cotton Palace.

The following program has been arranged for the encampment:

Miss Gussie Oscar Leases the Orpheum

Miss Gussie Oscar has leased the Orpheum theatre, formerly the Cozy. The many friends of Miss Oscar will be surprised to know that after several months absence from the city, Miss Oscar has returned, and will be seen daily in the box office of the Orpheum theatre.

Miss Oscar is well known in the city, and her many years of experience in the theatrical business in the city of Waco should insure the public that the entertainments that are to be offered at the Orpheum the coming season will be of the very highest class.

Miss Oscar has been very fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Carl Hack, who will act as manager of the new enterprise.

Mr. Hack is well known to the amusement public of Texas and Oklahoma. There is little doubt but what Mr. Hack will gain favor with the amusement-going public of Waco.

In speaking of the coming attractions, Mr. Hack states that he has no ability to offer, other than that all the acts that are booked are now playing the Interstate circuit.

Mr. Hack also states that all employees of the house will be young as well as composed, particularly the waiters and ushers, which will insure every patron, especially the ladies and children, that they can attend the Orpheum performances without having their pleasures marred in any way.

MISS ELIZABETH CAUFIELD, DUCHESS OF M'GREGOR

The latest duchess to be designated for the Queen's Ball at the Cotton Palace this year is Miss Elizabeth Caufield of McGregor, who will honor that enterprising McLennan county city. Miss Caufield is well known in Waco and very popular with the younger set.

County School Day to Be Big Event at Cotton Palace

Mrs. W. O. Wilkes, chairman of the Woman's department of the Cotton Palace, and R. L. Abbott, superintendent of schools of McLennan county, are working hard in planning for a "County School Day" at the Cotton Palace this fall. It is desired to have every public school in the county represented on that day. A monster parade will be held in the morning.

The following letter has been mailed to the teachers of the county:

"To the Teachers of McLennan

"County:

"In keeping the earnest desire of the management to bring the people of the county into closer touch with the Texas Cotton Palace and to make them feel that this enterprise is theirs, they wish this year to inaugurate a "County School Day," a day on which every school in the county will be represented.

"The idea is to have a huge parade in the morning, headed by your superintendent, each school to have either a deer, a deer wagon, auto or marching brigade. If your school has a domestic science or a music department, tell the people about it. In the afternoon we want to put on the in coliseum an entertainment, each school to furnish some part. Valuable prizes will be given by the Cotton Palace to be competed for yearly.

"Mr. Abbott has given us this plan his hearty endorsement and has promised to do everything in his power to make the event a success. A committee will confer with you at your September meeting in Waco. In the meantime, please give this matter your earnest thought and come prepared to offer suggestions.

"Hoping this plan will meet with your approval, and asking your support, we are,

"Yours very truly,

"TEXAS COTTON PALACE
ASSOCIATION.

"MRS. W. O. WILKES,
Chairman Woman's Dept.

"ASHER SANGER, President."

After an absence of nearly three months, Miss Ella E. Spierling, millinery designer for the Goldstein-Miguel company, returned to Waco last Thursday to resume charge of the busy workrooms of the G.-M. millinery department.

Miss Spierling's genius and artistic taste in the creation of fashionable feminine headwear have won much admiration from Waco women during the two years that she has been connected with the G.-M. store. Prior to coming to Waco, Miss Spierling was in the designing and trimming department of Hyland Brothers, one of Chicago's best known millinery houses.

To know that Miss Spierling is again in charge of the designing and trimming at Goldstein-Miguel's will be a source of much satisfaction to the many Waco women who were so well pleased with her work last year.

PENNANT NOW IS CINCHED HERRON MAKES BID FOR FAME

If Waco Loses All It Still Has the Rag Undisputed—Management Is Pleased.

When Manager Ellis Hardy announced early yesterday afternoon that the grounds at Katy park were not in playing condition on account of rain, the baseball season in Waco was ended. Any fans who want to see the pennant winners in action again this year must journey to the already conquered territory of the enemies.

Yesterday's most important happening so far as the Texans themselves were concerned was the distribution of the Hardy Day fund. The money was to have been handed to the players at Katy park before the game started, but it was called off the players assembled at W. H. P. Hotel, 1000 on Franklin Street, and an envelope containing $23.35 was given to each player. Toland, the catcher who was signed late in the season while Walters was out with an injured finger, received a half share amounting to $31.62, this being the usual manner of splitting such purses. Manager Hardy received 20 per cent of the total, amounting to $241.72. There was an attendance of 2,524.

The presentation of the money was made by the Hardy Day committee of the Y. M. C. A., consisting of Charles P. Link, chairman; W. V. Cravens, J. J. Hutchinson, A. Steele, W. H. Holt.

The management by Manager Hardy of the 10th season of the Waco baseball club was as great a surprise for that boy as it would be to win the next year almost an accepted fact. This makes to date three players who have gone up from the Navigators, Walters being the first. Marke also has been sold conditionally. The management of the Waco club is highly pleased with the whole season, of course feeling some little disappointment in the injury done to the team by the storm, and Galveston was saved out. Had there been a storm the season would have been far the most successful in the history of the league.

Waco has the pennant cinched. If she loses all her eleven games she will have a percentage of .557. If San Antonio wins her eight games she will have .557. If Dallas wins her eleven games she will have a percentage of .554.

COTTON PALACE AUTOMOBILE

GEORGE V. ROTAN BOTHERED BY SLICING, BUT GETS AROUND IN 81.

HERRON MAKES BID FOR FAME

San Antonio Player in National Championship Turns in Card of 73, Which Is Par.

Special to the Morning News.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 28.—Texans participating in the national amateur golf championship tournament which started today at the links of the Country club at Grosse Pointe gave an excellent account of themselves. Davison, Herron, representing the San Antonio Country Club, made a bid for fame by holing out figures being 33 for the out-trip and 35 the eighteen holes at the course in 73, his figures being: Out, 38, in, 35; total, 73. This is par for the course and is far better than was expected by many of the more noted players here.

George V. Rotan, Waco's hope in the tournament, state champion of Texas, was bothered by slicing, but got around in the creditable number of 81 on a course new to him.

L. R. Muller of the Dallas Country club went out in 40 and back in 42, scoring an 82.

For the day's preliminary, high winds and cold weather militated against the best showing of the southwestern men.

Play will be resumed Monday.

Other Texas Quality.

Detroit, Aug. 28.—Seventy-three contestants, almost equally divided between east and west, today survived the preliminary qualification of 18 holes of medal play, the first trip of six, in the national championship tournament. Davison, Herron of Pittsburgh and D. E. Sawyer of Wheaton, Ill., each turned in low cards of 73. Sixty golfers bid for a green, $3, $4 or better, and the one who tied with $3 also was permitted to enter the second preliminary round of medal play on Monday.

Travers took 73, Standish 81 and Outwater 82.

Other qualifying scores included an 81 by George V. Rotan of Waco, who for several years has held the Texas league championship. Rotan took a leisurely way going out, the trip costing him 46, his in trip was clipped off at par by Fig. 3.

Another Texas player, L. R. Muller of Dallas, turned in a card of 82. Nelson M. Whitney of New Orleans, former national champion, 81. W. C. Rock Island, Illinois, former trans-Mississippi champion, each made the course in 73. Reuben Busch of New Orleans was among the leaders with a 76.

Keen Interest in Play.

"Will the new golf champion be Evans, Ouimet or Travers—or will he be someone else?"

These three stars, each of whom is a champion, have been picked from a brilliant field by a majority of American enthusiasts, to furnish the winner of the tournament.

Something like 150 contestants completed in the qualifying round today. Harry Vardon, the famous English golfer, who shot a game on these grounds two years ago, pronounced the course the finest he has seen in America. Other students of the Scotch pastime have declared that no course in the country demands more skill from our performers in championship competition. Since the links were completed in June, the course has turned in a score better than 72.

So far as known, the great players from the east, middle west, south and Pacific coast have entered the national struggle and are mostly of the opinion that no championship possibility will be greatly favored or seriously handicapped by the requirements of the course. On the other hand, it is probably their unanimity that the "two shot" star will be left hopelessly behind before the preliminary rounds of medal play have been completed.

Nearly all of the amateurs who compete in the championship rounds in the 1914 tournament are entered. Chicago is to have more than a dozen players of national importance, in addition to the western champion, Chick Evans, and open champion, Francis Ouimet, and George V. Rotan of Waco, who is often referred to as "the peer of Dixie players" sent their entries in early. Through the efforts of the United States, certain to be re-enacted, the field is certain to be remarkable for the qualifying round.

After Monday, the tournament is expected to resolve itself into a battle of giants.

Golf experts, who for months have been writing of the tournament, have delighted in some referring to the contest as a struggle between the east and west, with the player, a long way shot, required; if with him, an iron will reach the green, which is banked. This is a splendid one-shot hole, but mounds and a more or less undulating surface on the green disturb well-laid plans.

No. 15, 364 yards—This is a diagonal shot, which a long drive will carry, permitting an easy mashie for the second. A drive to the right, however, discovers a big trap. There also traps right and left of the course, which narrows toward the green. The latter is banked at the rear. Par, 4.

No. 14, 216 yards—Play for this hole depends upon the wind. If it is against the player, a long way shot is required; if with him, an iron will reach the green, which is banked. This is a splendid one-shot hole, but mounds and a more or less undulating surface on the green disturb well-laid plans.

No. 16, 182 yards—This is a long drive, but topped or sliced second shot will land in a deep bunker. Large mounds along the course make an approach shot the necessary. The green is banked and the course narrows as the green is approached. Par, 5.

No. 17, 415 yards—A mound at the left catches a long drive, and a slice will find rough grass and a mound. In the center of the course are three traps for corner second shots. The green at either corner is guarded by traps. Par, 5.

No. 18, 181 yards—This hole is slightly elevated with a large trap in front of it, requiring accurate direction and carry. The green has a difficult slope. Par, 3.

The course is 6615 yards long and includes six holes that are 400 yards or more apart; three that are 500 yards or more; five in the 300-yard class and four of the 200-yard or less. A description of the grounds follows:

No. 1, 420 yards—The tee is on a rise and a carry of 150 yards is required to get onto the clear. Two large traps guard the green, which is banked, and traps are arranged to catch sliced or hooked second shots. Par, 4.

No. 2, 340 yards—This is the hole Vardon carded the best of his kind in America. It will take two long shots to get close to the green, which is on a rise. It is well guarded by traps, as also is the green, the front of which, however, is open. Par, 5.

No. 3, 568 yards—For this hole, an absolutely straight drive will be necessary. A diagonal bunker makes a hook or slice costly. A long shot to the left ends up in the hole, considered the best. The hole is a splendid target for accuracy and distance. No. 4, 341 yards—A ditch runs diagonally across the course, protecting otherwise well guarded green. About the ditch are several traps on the same side and at the rear of the green. Hooks and slices on this hole are costly. To play a par, 4, will require great accuracy.

No. 5, 164 yards—A ditch must be crossed by drive from an elevated tee. Pulled or short tee shots here mean trouble. The green is well guarded by traps at the right. Par, 3.

No. 6, 344 yards—The ditch is encountered diagonally. A pulled shot with a mashie will find the creek, while traps, which guard the right and rear of the green, will catch overdrives and slices. Par, 5.

No. 7, 515 yards—It will take three shots to reach the green. Trap mounds will find the green, while traps, which guard the right and rear of the green, will catch overdrives and slices. Par, 5.

No. 8, 515 yards—It will take three shots to reach the green. Trap mounds will find the green, while traps, which guard the right and rear of the green, will catch overdrives and slices. Par, 5.

No. 9, 401 yards—Believed to be the best shot hole on the course. A ledge will find the green, while traps, which guard the right and rear of the green, will catch overdrives and slices. Par, 5.

No. 10, 300 yards—A ditch runs diagonally across the course, protecting otherwise well guarded green. About the ditch are several traps on the same side and at the rear of the green. Hooks and slices on this hole are costly. To play a par, 5, will require great accuracy.

No. 11, 365 yards—A troublesome hole requiring great skill and careful play. The green is crossed diagonally by the ditch and either a long or short drive calls for a careful second. Traps at right and left and a bank at the rear guard the green. Par, 5.

No. 12, 365 yards—A troublesome hole requiring great skill and careful play. The green is crossed diagonally by the ditch and either a long or short drive calls for a careful second. Traps at right and left and a bank at the rear guard the green. Par, 5.

No. 13, 380 yards—A drive to the right is well protected. A ledge will find the green, while traps, which guard the right and rear of the green, will catch overdrives and slices. Par, 5.

No. 14, 365 yards—A trouble hole, requiring great skill and careful play. The green is crossed diagonally by the ditch and either a long or short drive calls for a careful second. Traps at right and left and a bank at the rear guard the green. Par, 5.
